Product Description

Description

Tired of the hassle of calculating laundry detergent dosages? Our laundry pods simplify the laundry process. Thanks to their precision - dosing design, each pod is scientifically formulated to clean 8 to 12 items of clothing. You no longer need to worry about using too much or too little detergent. The water - soluble film of the pod dissolves instantly upon contact with water, leaving no residue or sticking. It's equally convenient for both machine and hand washing, delivering an effortless and efficient laundry experience.
