Description

This detergent is elaborately developed by a professional R & D team based on active molecules such as surfactants. The capsule - type formulation effectively isolates components, ensuring stability. It dissolves rapidly in water, releasing its cleaning power to combat all kinds of stains. The unique enzyme formula can decompose protein and starch stains in a targeted manner. In addition, we use environmentally friendly raw materials to minimize environmental impact while cleaning clothes. It meets ISO certification standards, and MSDS reports are available, satisfying the strict requirements of different scenarios and customers.
